

The American flags stand for when we were free from the British. The American flag is also known for its stripes and bright colors.

