

The Purple Sky

The sun is setting and the moon is rising and the sky is purple. People and animals look up at the purple sky then the people start to fall asleep.

The cat starts to fall asleep looking at the purple sky. The dog starts to fall asleep looking at the purple sky. The owl does not fall asleep he will look at the purple sky all night.

The squirrel starts to fall asleep looking at purple sky. The horse starts to fall asleep looking at the purple sky.

Now the people are asleep and the animals are asleep too. Then the sun starts to rise there is no purple sky.
