

Worm Thursday

One Thursday morning I was walking to school when I saw something so very cool.

I looked down and saw all of these worms and thought to myself what are they doing here?

I looked all around me and saw all sorts of worms, some big, some small, some were pink and some were purple!

But worm Thursday all started out with a little bit of rain.